

Information on survey for life insurance agents

The Department of Insurance is soliciting feedback from licensed resident agents with a life line of authority to determine if your abilities to act as a life settlement broker have been restricted. To complete the survey, please log into your eServices account and click on "Life Settlement Survey." Your individual responses will be kept confidential with only the summary totals used by DOI.